Optional Activities

November 11-16, 2014 • Santa Fe, New Mexico

Santa Fe is a city rich in Native American tradition and big-city modernity. Each year, visitors from around the globe flock here to enjoy the city's many historical and cultural offerings. To ensure you have an opportunity to enjoy some of Santa Fe's many attractions, special tours and excursions have been arranged specifically for our participants.

These activities are open to our conference on a first-come-first-served basis.

Please respond early to reserve your place!

Tuesday, November 11

Walking Tour of the Historic Santa Fe Plaza

3:00pm - 5:00pm

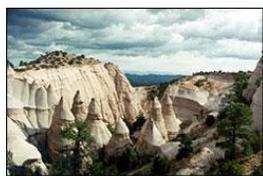

Walk through more than 400 years of history, art, and culture. Learn about the historic Plaza and the Palace of the Governors (whose occupants have included government and military leaders from Spain, Mexico, the Confederacy, the U.S. and Indian nations). Learn about St. Francis Cathedral, and explore the Loretto Chapel and its miraculous staircase; the oldest church; the capitol, and other major Santa Fe historical sites. The tour will finish at the O'Keeffe Museum, where guests can explore on their own.

COST: $65 per person includes private transportation, guide, entrance to Loretto Chapel and O'Keeffe Museum, gratuities, and NM State tax. Based on a minimum of 10 people.

Wednesday, November 12

Tent Rocks

9:00am - 2:00pm

Join us for a beautiful slot canyon hike through the unique geological area known as Kasha-Katuwe Tent Rocks. Tent Rocks is an area that features large, cone-shaped rocks hugging the steep cliffs of Peralta Canyon. These formations were originally created by the powerful dual forces of vulcanism and erosion - which have built up, reshaped and then torn down this landscape over time. While uniform in shape, the tent rock formations vary in height from just a few feet to over 90. Most of the trail is on a gradual sloping incline through a slot canyon that is an invigorating but not strenuous walk. A steep climb to the top of the mesa is available at the end of the trail for those interested in a challenge and a spectacular view. Please bring layered clothing, a sun blocking hat, good walking shoes and sunscreen.

COST: $115 per person includes private transportation, professional guide, entrance fees, boxed lunch, bottled water, gratuities and NM State Tax. Based on a minimum of 15 people.

Southwest Cooking Class at the Santa Fe School of Cooking

9:30am - 1:00pm

Master the flavors of the real Southwest with a cooking class reflecting the unique cultural mix of Santa Fe. Our classes, taught by some of the best chefs in Santa Fe, are not only entertaining and educational, but delicious, too. Today's menu might include Grilled Salmon Fillet with Poblano-Lime Jam, Fresh Corn and Green Onion Tamale, Chipotle Black Beans, Cabbage Cilantro Slaw and Vanilla Espresso Flan. Demonstration style class.

COST: $135 per person includes transportation, instruction, recipes, lunch, gratuities and NM State Tax. Based on a minimum of 20 guests. Alcoholic beverages are on an individual basis.

Friday, November 14

Bandelier National Monument

Travel northwest out of Santa Fe to Bandelier National Monument, and descend into a canyon filled with the ruins of the Anasazi Indians, colloquially "the Ancient Ones." Located on the Pajarito Plateau of the Jemez Mountains, Bandelier was the home of the Anasazi from the eleventh to fourteenth centuries. Excavated over 90 years ago, these ruins were once home to over 200 people, ancestors of today's Pueblo Indians. Walk along easy paths past the remains of ancient Pueblo dwellings, to the cliff dwellings where they can climb ladders to peer inside. If time permits, take a walk further up the path that leads to the Ceremonial Cave, where the Anasazi and later descendants held spiritual rites and celebrations.

COST: $80 per person includes transportation, professional guide, entrance fees, gratuities and NM State Tax, based on a minimum of 15 people.

1:00pm – 5:00pm

Chimayo Tour

Enjoy a drive through the beautiful sandstone formations into the lush Chimayo Valley. The tour will take us north of Santa Fe along the "High Road", passing through several small 18th and 19th century Hispanic farming communities before finally arriving at the village of Chimayo, located in a beautiful valley in the foothills of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. Stops include the charming Santuario de Chimayo, the most important Catholic pilgrimage site in the Southwest, and Centinela Weaving.

COST: $70 per person includes private transportation, professional guide, donations, gratuities and NM State Tax. Based on a minimum of 15 people.

1:00pm – 5:00pm

Red Chile Workshop

Do you love chile? Are you curious but unfamiliar? Our Chile Workshops will delight those already familiar with New Mexico's official state vegetable and light the fires of passion for those yet uninitiated. Here in the Land of Enchantment, chile is more than an ingredient; it is the embodiment of a diverse and rich cultural heritage and a distinct Southwestern lifestyle. Participants will explore chile's unique culinary history and discover how to handle them safely and efficiently in the kitchen. This workshop will include a lively discussion of the various dried red chiles and you will prepare: corn tortillas, red chile sauce made from New Mexican powder, roasted tomato & chipotle sauce, and red chile sauce made from New Mexican pods.

COST: $105 per person includes private transportation, recipes, instruction and snacks, based on 15.

1:45pm - 3:30pm

Studio and Gallery Tour of Canyon Road

For nearly a century, artists and art lovers have flocked to Canyon Road, Santa Fe's art gallery district. Santa Fe is an art collectors dream, and nowhere else in town can you find the artistic scope and richness that Canyon Road offers. On Canyon Road you'll find more than 100 art galleries and studios, unique specialty shops, world class restaurants, and the historic adobe architecture that gives Santa Fe its legendary southwestern charm. Join us on a tour of Canyon Road's many attractions and find out why Canyon Road is "The Art and Soul of Santa Fe." Last stop is at Kakawa Chocolate House for a Chocolate Elixir sampling – discover it's healing properties!

COST: $85 per person includes private transportation, guide, chocolate tasting, gratuities, and NM State Tax. Based on a minimum of 10 people.
